New Business: River Days June 9 from 11 – 3pm. Nancy turned in application. Planning on Taco in a Bag. Suggested selling mardi gras beads and leis, and bears as well as Keys tickets. Need sign in for Key's tickets, need pop up tent, coolers (6 with ice) Barbeque grill and burners and coleman stove to heat
Thursday is Concert, planning on concession stand

Mr. Groen: Plan to send student leaders to James Madison University July 8 – 11. Looked at ebay for tenors, there are some good instruments on there – a tenor and barisax- will get information.

Band will need food for graduation. Keith will get pizza. Chours will also perform and will get snacks at Mt. ST. Mary's

Checking on "B's" ordered—from US Sports

Found some pins-Martina had ordered in past.

From Jessica fund: Suggestions are chimes, fix xylophones, possible bass drums, as well as many small things: cowbells, windchimes. Also maintainence on tympany, repair heads and repair heads and new mallets. Will ask Chris Player if has any extra things to donate—as BMS got much new equipment when renovations were done.

Howie will get 11 columns from Biglerville

Debbie said Geri Reynolds would like Band to perform on First Friday.

Mr.G assures that no naked image of the Vetruvian Man(as was sent out with students) will be associated with this show in any way. Show is being referred to as Struture, Balance and Harmony. By June will need a design for the tee shirt.

Keys games is Aug. 17 –to sell tickets could set up in gazebo at Brunswick shopping center and sell tickets at Carnival.

Students will get a code of conduct at beginning of band camp. Mr. Groen will have forms to fill out if students need to if need to miss a practice.

Schedule is online. Got patches for drumline.

Tentative guard instructor are either Janis, an elementary school teacher or someone from Shepherd.

Mr. G would like snacks provided for band camp at about 11 am.

Robin asked if there was a noise ordinance-hasn't been a problem in the past.

Fields for practice: Can use baseball fields—no one can use football field for practice.

Line paint—will need to get different type that last year. Will need about 5 cases.

New Business:

Working dates with Mrs. Mitchell about trip. Maybe spring break-either Disney World or Myrtle Beach. Lot of equipment can fit on a plane. Would like to compete .

Mr. G spoke about a new direction for music program .Out of 5 class days a week, he plans to go outside 3 days and the other 2 days practice concert music. Want to focus on instruments and encouraging kids to take private lessons.

Mr.G's brother works at 84 Lumber and may be able to put new doors on the lockers

Mural is almost done—Katie has been working on it.

Need to figure out carts. Old cart for practice and may need to trailer golf cart to competitions. Mr. G might have a cart to pull golf cart in.

Robin suggests hanging hats around perimeter of trailer to get room and move big hat box out.

Mr. G talked about painting shoes burgundy—discussed vinyl paint from auto shop
